The Power of a Job

“it’s about jobs, not overcrowding. It’s about jobs not about culture or ethnicity or missions or history. It’s about jobs, not about grog and drug abuse. It’s not even about child abuse. All these are merely symptoms of long term unemployment”

Pastor Steve Etherington, Oenpelli, Northern Territory

Future, Country.
Gelganyem, Kilkayi.

“With the signing of the new Agreement with Argyle Diamond Mine, we are in control of our own destiny. We are empowered to make our own decisions, to be contributing back to society. We are strengthening our cultural history so that the next generation will be proud of their heritage”

Ted Hall, Chair, Gelganyem Trust

“We’ve been here for a long time and will be around much longer. The question is ‘do we want others to run our affairs or do we call our own shots from here on in. I’ll take the latter and I pray many more out there are with me for independence and a better life”
